MEMORY THEATRE

The Method of Non-Loci

A blueprint from which the scene of one's escape can be constructed / from associative professor to the Coulomb-us of the undiscovered country / the rehearsal of spooky acts at a distance / the trick of singularity.

The Dark Meaning Research Institute

“He [Giulio Camillo] calls this theatre of his by many names, saying now that it is a built or constructed mind and soul, and now that it is a windowed one. He pretends that all things that the human mind can conceive and which we cannot see with the corporeal eye, after being collected together by diligent mediation may be expressed by certain corporeal signs in such a way that the beholder may at once perceive with his eyes everything that is otherwise hidden in the depths of the human mind. And it is because of this corporeal looking that he calls it a theatre.”
